

PURSE FOR PASTOR TO SPEND ABROAD

Church of Covenant, Members Give Dr. Hamlin $5,000.

SAILED FOR ITALY SATURDAY

Handsomeness of Congregation in Appreciation of Twenty Years' Service.

The Rev. Teunis S. Hamlin and Mrs. Hamlin sailed for Europe last Saturday from Boston to Naples.

Behind this announcement is a little story of interest demonstrating the high regard in which Dr. Hamlin is held by members of the congregation of the Church of the Covenant of which Dr. Hamlin is pastor.

Accompanied by Mrs. Hamlin.

Dr. Hamlin is just now celebrating the twentieth anniversary of his connection with the Church of the Covenant, and hearing that the pastor was anxious to take Mrs. Hamlin abroad for the benefit of her health they quietly started a subscription for this purpose, which resulted in a $5,000 purse for Dr. Hamlin.

No formal presentation was made, but the money was given over to Dr. Hamlin with the hearty good wishes for a pleasant journey for himself and Mrs. Hamlin and rigid instructions that they should take in every point of interest to be seen on the continent.

Go Direct to Naples.

Dr. and Mrs. Hamlin left Washington on Friday and on Saturday they sailed direct to Naples. They will spend some time in Italy and then make a continental tour, going later to England, from where they will sail for home in the fall.

MACCABEES INCREASE RELIEF APPROPRIATIONS

Last night National Tent, No. 1, of the Maccabees, made an additional appropriation of $35, to be sent to the Maccabee relief committee, and authorized the record keeper of the tent to receive from the members of the tent individual subscriptions for the relief funds of that order.

There are over 1,000 Maccabees suffering from the effects of the earthquake and fire in California, and the local organizations are rushing in the relief to care for them.

National Tent, No. 1, took 100 of the tickets for the entertainment at the Columbia Theater, on the night of the 14th, which is for the benefit of the suffering Maccabees in the State of California. Full information can be had, and tickets, of the committee or the State commander, for this entertainment.

The following tents have already responded to the call:

National Tent, No. 1; Golden Rule Tent, No. 2; Mt. Vernon Tent, No. 4; Georgetown Tent, No. 6; and Anacostia Tent, No. 7, and all others will do likewise as fast as they hold meetings. Later, contributions will be made as the exigency of the case may require.

LYNCHING THREATENED FOR GRAY-HAIRED MAN

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 1.—"Lynch the wretch! String the brute to a pole!" fiercely cried an excited crowd of more than 100 men as they followed on the heels of Adam Klingner, aged fifty, a gray-haired porter, who was being conducted to the police station.

He is alleged to have committed an assault upon the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haskell.

Rhus Toxicodendron Goes to the Guillotine

District Health Officer Woodward Makes Successful War on That Noxious Vine Known as the Poison Ivy.

After fourteen years of growth a large poison ivy vine decorating the premises at the southeast corner of Fourteenth and P streets northwest will be uprooted and killed by the owner at the request of the District Health Department. Complaint had been made by a botanist in the Department of Agriculture that the plant in question, which has long been regarded by the owner as a thing of beauty was the Rhus toxicodendron, commonly known as "poison ivy," and would poison anyone who touched its leaves. To bear out his assertion the botanist applied some of the wet leaves of the plant to his hand and received a severe poisoning. This practical demonstration of the menacing properties of the plant convinced the health officer that the vine should go. A formal request for the death of the plant was made to the owner, who agreed; and in a few days it will be a thing of memory.

Health Officer Woodward favors a general wiping-out of all the poison ivy and poison oak vines growing in the city and the suburbs, believing them to be dangerous to public health. He would, he states, wage a campaign for their total extermination, but is prevented from doing so because the present "weed law" does not include these noxious plants.

OLD PEOPLE'S HOME FOR PRESBYTERIANS

Dr. Bailey Makes Suggestion at Alliance Reception That One Be Built.

An "old people's home for Presbyterians" was proposed by Dr. George W. Bailey, the young moderator of the last presbytery, and pastor of the Western Church, at a reception given by the Presbyterian Alliance to its members and friends last night at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. Dr. Bailey suggested that it was the duty of the alliance to take the initial step toward the erection of such a home.

Dr. Wallace Radcliffe referred to the gathering as approaching something of a celebration of the bicentennial of Presbyterianism in America, it being 200 years, almost to a day, since Presbyterian doctrine were first preached here.

Dr. Bittenger, oldest among the pastors in the alliance, gave his indorsement of the "old people's home," saying that he would be ready to fit himself in twenty years.

An informal reception was then given by Mrs. E. H. Warner, Mrs. Wallace Radcliffe, Mrs. W. T. Thompson, Mrs. Shaffer, Mrs. Linton, Mrs. E. M. Barnes, Miss Hanover, Mrs. Selby, Miss Houghton, Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. George W. Bailey, Mrs. Charles F. Bailey, and Mrs. Edward Graves, all of whom are active in Presbyterian circles.
